

Love is Forever or so They SaY
Alyssa H

This is deicated to a boy I used to love very much.
They say love is forever
But I can't believe that's true
You said you would love me forever
I guess until I make a huge mistake
Why must I be the worst sinner ?
When you have your faults too
You abandoned me after eight years
For Morgan a friend you just met
Does my friendship mean nothing to you?
I curse the day I met you boy
Send you and her too to Hades
I'm sorry however I believe I have a right to be angry
You ripped my heart into shreds boy once finding out I love girls more than men
You told me to be real this is who I am
Ill stop denying it
So quit for crying out loud
Judging me , and being hypocritical
Deal with your own Heart before trying to help me
I never abandoned you though you freaking did
You call me a liar well youre a liar too
Once again I must pick up the pieces of my cold bruised soul
So they say Love is forever I no longer believe it
I bid fantasies and fairytales adieu because all I know now is Love is cruel
