

The Black Rubber Boots Murder

By: Breanne P

Chapter 1: The Murderer

I run into my room and sneak into my closet behind clothes in the darkness. I hear him walk into my room. He killed my parents and now he is after me. He looks under my bed, then glances at the closet. I see his black rubber boots standing in the doorway of my closet. I feel like I am going to scream so I put my hands over my mouth. Tears are gushing out of my eyes. He starts walking away from my closet and I take a relieving breath. All of a sudden he turns back towards my closet and starts walking back towards it. I keep thinking in my mind he knows where I am. My heart is beating a million times a second. When he is at my closet he squats down and pulls me out of the closet. He throws me on my bed, I kick and punch him and fight back. He pulls out a gun puts it to my head and tells me to relax. I throw the gun out of his hand and start fighting back again. He then gets mad and throws me against my wall putting a hole through it, making me unconscious.

Chapter 2: The Fire

I wake up with flames around me the only way out is to jump to my bed and then out my window which I have done many times before. I get up kinda dizzy, jump to my bed and hit my leg on my bed frame, I then jump over to my window and climb out and jump out my room onto the grass and go to my street and sit there with my leg out in front of me straight as possible and wait for the ambulance.

Chapter 3: The Hospital

When the ambulance got there with the cops I still felt very dizzy. They put me in the ambulance and inspected me. I had bruises on my arms and my hips and on my legs. My leg was broken from hitting it on my bed frame and I cried the whole time. When we got to the hospital they put me in a room and gave me a sleeping pill. A few hours later I woke up and the nurse came in the room with a cop. The cop asked what my name was, I told him Jane Smith. He then asked my parents' names, I told him Michael and Jenna Smith. He then asked if they died in the fire. No, I said, someone killed them right before the fire. I lost control then I started crying hard. He asked me who killed them, I cried even harder. The nurse told him he had to leave. The nurse gave me another sleeping pill and I slept the rest of the night.

Chapter 4: Nurse Sarah

I became very close to my nurse, her name was Sarah. I told Sarah what happened that night since I refused to talk to the cops. She understood why I didn't want to talk that afternoon to the cop. She told the cop for me, they came in to make sure what Sarah said was true and the officer left to make an order for the man that killed my family. Nurse

Sarah told me the next day that I was going to have visitors the following day. I asked her who was coming. Sarah said your adoption parents to get to know you and possibly take you home. I gasped and started crying. Sarah gave me a sleeping pill and I slept the remainder of the day.

Chapter 5: The Adoption Parents

When I woke up the next morning there was a young couple in my room sitting in some chairs looking at me. The woman spoke first, she said “Good morning Jane, my name is Michelle and this is my fiancé Bill, we are going to be your new parents if that is ok with you.” I then said it was ok, and called Sarah into the room. Michelle told me I was leaving the hospital to move in with them in one week. I acted excited. Bill just sat there and watched Michelle talk up a storm. Did he even want me as a daughter I have no clue but when Sarah came in she told Michelle and Bill they had to leave so I could eat and so she could talk to me.

Chapter 6: Leaving the Hospital

A week later I was leaving the hospital with Michelle and Bill. They found the guy who killed my family and he went to prison for life. Michelle and Bill are so cool I can tell Michelle everything. She is more of a friend to me than a mom but I love her so much. Bill spoils me to death. I’m 17 now and still an only child, I’m a junior and I’m getting good grades. I have a boyfriend now, his name is Ricky. Michelle and Bill let me keep my last name Smith as a memory of my parents.

The End.
