

Lost

I'm lost without you
I need you here
I scream and yell
What don't you here?

Why did you leave?
Why did you go?
You said you loved me
Or I thought so

The thought of you leaving...
Never
We were supposed to be together
Forever

You left me now
What do I do?
Because you know I could never live without you

I've given up-I'm lost
Without you-my heart has stopped
