

We all want to be a hero but we all can't take the punch.
We all want to be superman but superman has to be won.

We all have a kryptonite in our lives
we all have an enemy to overcome
so fight the battle until the battles won because the world is on our shoulders.

We all want to fight for a cause and save the damsel in distress but the dragon breathes fire and the fire burns
We all won't pass the test.
