

Short Story
The Evil Pudding Cup

One day when the super hero Isabella, the French bulldog, was saving the town of dogville from a meteor shower, she heard a cry for help. She flew to the sound of the cry. Just as she got there, someone fell off of a roof. Isabella saved him and put him on the ground. She looked up and saw a giant laser beam nearly miss her body. She flew up and heard an evil laugh from the evil pudding cup who was trying to destroy her and take over the world but Isabella was so fast and in the blink of an eye she was next to him. He tried to run away but Isabella came up and ate him all up. She went back to the giant laser and rescued the hostages that were being held. As she was leaving the evil pudding cup's assistant tried to lock her but jumped out of the cage and arrested the assistant.

THE END

Story made by Andrew L.