

What would u do if the one you want is gone forever?
How would you mend your heart if you were not together?
The pain inside goes deep inside
But to hear your voice one last time
I would tell you all the things that I couldn't say
And listen to the words that I wouldn't hear.

The pain I caused you
our are causing me a million times over
I am lost in the most simplest gifts
Because the only gift I ever had was you,
Until you took that all away,
My works have nothing left to say.

Since the day I met you
You were my strength, my guidance, my refuge.
Your songt was my savior
Now it gives off bad behavior.
I used to sing it wieh my heart in my voice
But now that your gone you've left me no choice...
