

Too Late Now

I want to tell you that I love you
But when I look up at your face,
I forget what I want to say
I can't think of anything to do
I just stand up and make a fool of me
Right in front of you

I have zero to nothing of a chance
That I will ever tell you what I feel
Some say it's a myth
But deep down inside, I know what I feel is real

My heart wants to tell you of what I really feel
But I can't seem to find the right words to say
You seem to have stolen my heart
But you won't give me the time of day

How can I tell you what I feel,
When you can't hear me?
I want to tell you that I love you,
But words won't come out of my mouth

Can't you see that you're my one true love?
I need you with me
Together, you and me, we can face it all
And never have to fall

I want to tell you that I love you
But now it's too late now
You love someone else
I know it doesn't matter now, but
I love you
