

I Want to Kiss Your Lips

I want to kiss your lips,
I promise I'll never neglect.
Only to love you more and more,
And treat you with respect.

I love it when you hug me,
Your arms feel safe and warm.
Within your constriction,
I never sense any harm.

Honey, stay with me.
I promise to treat you right.
I'll be passionate and loving,
Making love to you every night.
